

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

Engineering safety Consultants K Limited is wholly committed to the highest standards in providing its services while working towards being the best Quality, Safety, Health and Environment (QHSE) Service company providing QHSE Training, Plant inspection and certification, statutory Health and safety audits and consultancy Services within East Africa.

To achieve this goal, we are committed to:

- Continually seek quality improvement of our operational processes through provision of a framework for setting and monitoring our objectives to enhance our operational performance.
- Fulfil applicable local and international compliance obligations and other contractual requirements.
- Communicate our quality commitments internally and avail it to interested parties, as appropriate.
- Enhance awareness and understanding of our quality requirements to everyone within our organization and control.
- Recognize, develop and empower our employees and stakeholders to provide satisfactory services in meeting our customer expectations.
- Promote quality in our partnership with our external service providers.
- Periodically review our policies, objectives and operational procedures in consideration of the risks, opportunities and interested parties needs and expectations.
- Conduct market and customer survey to promote continual improvement.

Gilbert MARIKA
Managing Director